

French Ph.D. Checklist – Literature

Coursework:

12 Graduate Seminars (core courses & electives), chosen in consultation with the graduate adviser

Core Courses:

CRI 200A – Approaches to Critical Theory

_____ - One seminar in French Linguistics (such as FRE 291)

Electives – chosen in consultation with Grad Adviser & Major Professor to enable both a general knowledge of the history of French literature and specialization in one of the literary sub-fields:

_____ (Elective)

_____ (Elective)

_____ (Elective)

_____ (Elective)

_____ (Elective)

_____ (Elective)

_____ (Elective)

_____ (Elective)

_____ (Elective)

_____ (Elective)

Professional Development. Students serving as TAs must enroll in FRE 390A & FRE 390B (Teaching French in College) during fall and winter of their first year of teaching. TAs are also eligible for 4 units of FRE 396 (TA Training Practicum), each quarter they serve as a 50% TA.

For further information, see the Degree Requirements and Graduate Handbook available online at:

<http://frenchanditalian.ucdavis.edu/graduate-program/resources>

French Ph.D. Checklist – Literature

First-Year Exam. Date _____

Foreign Language Requirement. (fulfilled through exam or coursework)

Language (other than French & English) _____ Date _____

Designated Emphasis Course & Committee Requirements, if applicable.

DE: _____ QE Rep: _____ Dissertation Rep: _____

Qualifying Exam. Dates of written exams _____, _____

Date of oral exam _____

Committee Chair _____

Additional Committee Members (4) _____, _____, _____, &

Dissertation. Date filed _____

Committee Chair (Major Professor): _____

Additional Committee Members (2): _____, & _____
