

EVER HEARD OF MICHELANGELO, GALILEO, DA VINCI, MACHIAVELLI, OR THE MEDICI FAMILY?

ITA 115A surveys the cultural legacy of the Italian Renaissance in the formative period of the 16th century: political theory, art, science, economics, literature, and more.

Impress your friends and family by using the term “Machiavellian” correctly—learn why Galileo was put under house arrest—and discover the courtly principle of sprezzatura, the art of seeming effortlessly good at everything you do.

Fall 2020: CINQUECENTO

A long century of Italian innovation

Prof. Grace Delmolino
ITA 115A, CRN 53007
GE credit AH, OL, WC
Fall '20, TR 10:30 - 11:50 AM*

**in the event of a remote or hybrid Fall, asynchronous options will be available*

Taught in Italian. Satisfies Renaissance period requirement for the Italian Major.

Image: Lavinia Fontana, Ritratto della famiglia Maselli